

The 3rd fib JYMG Webinar by Professor Tamon Ueda

I am pleased to announce that the fib Japanese Young Members Group (JYMG) is holding a webinar on September 3rd (Thu). The speaker is Professor Tamon Ueda from Shenzhen University, China (an emeritus professor at Hokkaido University):

<https://www.eng.hokudai.ac.jp/labo/maintenance/ueda/ueda.html>

https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Tamon_Ueda/

Event Timing: 14:00 - 15:00 on September 3rd, 2020

Speaker: Prof. Tamon Ueda from Shenzhen University, China

Webinar title: Role of Engineers/Researchers of Civil Engineering in Japan for the World

Webinar platform: TBA (probably on Zoom)

The webinar will be one-hour long; 20-30 min talk by Prof. Ueda and 20-30 min for plenary discussion. Any engineers, researchers, and students in Japan are welcome to join.

For the event registration, please fill out the following form:

<https://forms.gle/UZSK1YN5XUijmxsU8>

Looking forward to seeing you all there.

Motohiro Ohno, PhD

Research Associate, Concrete Laboratory at The University of Tokyo

Chair of the fib Japanese Young Members Group

Deputy Chair of the fib Young Members Group

(<https://www.fib-international.org/commissions/ymg-young-members-group.html>)

Contact: ohno@concrete.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp